

The Security Institute is a professional membership body for security professionals. Since 2000 it has been working to promote the highest possible standards of integrity and professional competence in the business of security. The Security Institute welcomes applications for membership from security personnel who wish to be recognised and respected by their community as Professionals. Members consider continuous professional development to be an essential component of being a Professional. Whether they are a Security Officer wishing to progress up the ladder or a Manager who needs to learn new skills, The Security Institute will afford individuals the tools to fulfil their aim. The membership is diverse, and this is the strength that enables cross sector engagement. Some of the disciplines include:

- Providers of Security goods and Guarding services
- Corporate security Supervisors, Managers and Directors
- Security Managers in the public sector
- Individuals currently serving in the Civil Service, the Police and the Armed Forces
- Providers of Security education including Trainers and Academics
- Security Consultants

The Management Team of The Security Institute is committed to the Quality Management System, to all the requirements of ISO 9001 : 2015 and to continuous improvement. The purpose of the Security Institute is “to support professional communities by driving excellence in protective security for the benefit of society”. The Mission is to inspire, inform and influence professional excellence for the benefit of our members, the security community and wider society.

The following strategic pillars have been set:

- An exceptional membership experience.
- Influence
- Professionalism
- Next Generation/Career Pathways
- Ethics/Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion

All staff shall be given adequate time and resources to ensure the Quality Management System is implemented effectively. To achieve these aims, objectives have been set by The Security Institute.

The Quality Policy Statement shall be communicated to all staff and external parties. Changes to the Quality Policy Statement shall be made and an amended copy shall be communicated internally and externally. This Policy shall be reviewed annually by the Management Team and updated as required.
